Thank you to our sponsors

... and to our partners

Empowering our community through the performing arts.

Productions

Whether original works or time-tested classics, Allentown Public Theatre's mainstage productions respond directly to the concerns and needs of the community in which we live.

With our Ensemble of local professional artists, we create work out of community and about community, often reaching beyond our organization to do so.

Allentown Public Theatre is committed to making quality performances accessible and affordable to all sectors of the public.

Mission

Allentown Public Theatre
is dedicated to empowering our diverse communities through the performing arts.
We expand opportunities for cultural participation and education in theatre, and create works that address contemporary issues.

Sponsorship Options

By being an APT sponsor, you could be a part of growing a healthy, sustainable, inclusive cultural community in Allentown.

Your financial contribution will support our ongoing initiatives to bring people together by creating a stage for our city's vibrant cultures.
